

In Orange County, there are many Invisible Populations that need a voice, support and uplifting care to have the opportunities they deserve.

You are a Leader. You can make a difference.

Grandma's House of Hope is currently accepting applications for dedicated service-oriented individuals to join its Board of Directors.

This passionate group of community leaders is committed to creating a sustainable impact through building community connections, providing strategic direction and professional expertise, and advocating and raising funds in support of Grandma's House of Hope's programs and services.

THE COMMITMENT:

- * Attend monthly board meetings
- * Attend special events
- * Fundraising -- GHH is a 100% giving board
- * Board Dues are $200 per year to pay for materials and annual board retreat.
- * Networking and advocacy on behalf of GHH
- * Reviewing and approving the annual budget, audit reports and continued development of policies
- * Ensuring Grandma's House of Hope's commitment to a diverse board and staff whose expertise and influence reflects the communities served.

QUALIFICATIONS:

We especially welcome Senior and Executive level professionals with experience in the following fields to apply: legal, medical, faith-based, human trafficking, advocacy, senior care, public relations, marketing, technology, social enterprise, real estate and education.

If Board Membership sounds like the opportunity for you, please contact Executive Director/ Founder, Je'net Kreitner at 714-558-8600 or Jenet@grandmashouseofhope.org to apply and learn more.
